

ART DOCENTS WANTED!!

Do you enjoy looking at paintings of famous artists?
Are you interested in learning more about the different styles of paintings or the difference between an impressionist and surrealist?
Are you looking to get involved?

Consider volunteering as an Art Docent in your child's classroom!

Cobblestone students love Art Docent presentations, especially when their parents are presenting. Add to the fun by recruiting other parents to team teach with you.

Lessons include a presentation of paintings by famous artists followed by a hands-on art project for the students. Each presentation has a different theme.

Why should I be an Art Docent?

-  No experience or artistic talent necessary!
-  Being an Art Docent is fun!
-  Training is available.*
-  It's a great way for you to get involved.
-  Commitment time is minimal (only a few hours each month).
-  Kids LOVE it!

If you are interested in volunteering as an Art Docent in your child's classroom, please complete the contact information below and return it to your child's teacher ASAP.
