Cobblestone Elementary School
E-reader/Chromebook
Acceptable Use Policy & Agreement Form

Introduction

Electronic readers also known as "e-Readers" are digital devices that can store books, periodicals, magazines and other electronic media. Some examples include, but are not limited to Kindle, Nook, and Sony Readers. This policy also includes tablets and chromebooks that have e-reader applications installed on them. Cell phones are not acceptable devices to use as e-readers.

While we are happy that students are using technology to foster their love of reading, we have some expectations to ensure the appropriate use of these devices.

Expectations

1. Cobblestone School and/or staff are not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged devices. If you bring an e-reader or chromebook on campus, it is your responsibility to care for it.
2. All e-readers and chromebooks must be labeled with the student's first and last name
3. Each student is responsible for his/her own e-reader/chromebook and is not allowed to lend it to another student while on campus.
4. Use of the device must adhere to RUSD's Acceptable Use Policy and Network Agreement.
5. E-readers/chromebooks can be used in class only when the teacher gives the student permission. If a student is using an e-reader/chromebook at an inappropriate time, the teacher may confiscate it. The Cobblestone's cell-phone policy will be used for offenses to this rule.
6. E-readers/chromebooks are to be used for reading school related material only.
7. Any student found to be using his/her e-reader or chromebook for internet access during class without permission will lose his/her privileges. This includes using the internet while on campus to download reading materials.
8. All books must be downloaded outside of the school day and off campus.
9. Parents are solely responsible for the content on their child's e-reader/chromebook.
10. The privilege to use an e-reader/chromebook can be revoked at any time.

We also recognize that using an e-reader or chromebook is a privilege and a responsibility which may be revoked at any time.